

Save the Date - - - Plan to Attend

17th annual Public History Conference / Convention

In our increasingly polarized society, the symbol of the 19th century Underground Railroad movement and its abolition activists challenges us to publicly reflect and act upon the legacy of the institution of slavery in our contemporary times

LibertyCon 2018 – Embracing Equity in a Global Society

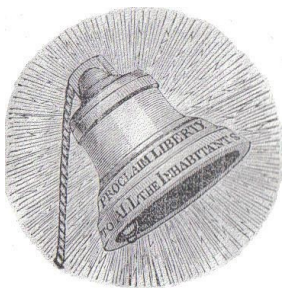

When – March 9-11, 2018

Where – NYS Museum, Albany

Capital Center, Albany Heritage Area

Visitors Center, The Stephen and Harriet Myers Residence

Presented by: Underground Railroad History Project in collaboration with New York State Council for Social Studies and Archives Partnership Trust

March 11 -

Open House at The Stephen and Harriet Myers Residence
194 Livingston Avenue, Albany

An award winning, documented Underground Railroad site

Complete details available at UndergroundRailroadHistory.org/conference or by calling 518-432-4432

