

Name: _____

Date: _____

Who's Who in the Underground Railroad Movement

Across

3. The most famous female UGRR activist
4. Two Quaker sisters who worked in the UGRR movement in Albany, NY
6. The most important leader of the UGRR in Albany and the Capital Region
7. This UGRR activist took up arms in the Bleeding Kansas conflict
8. The Freedom Seeker who was apprehended under the 1850 Federal Fugitive Slave Law in Troy, NY
9. A free man who lived in Saratoga County and was kidnapped into enslavement

Down

1. This UGRR abolitionist was brought out of enslavement by his father and was central to UGRR activities in Troy, NY
2. This UGRR activist was born a free person in Alexandria, Virginia and came to Albany, NY to work with Stephen Myers
5. This UGRR activist helped publish the Tocsin of Liberty newspaper in Albany, NY

Word Bank

Stephen Myers
Henry Highland Garnet
Abel Brown

Charles Nalle
John Brown

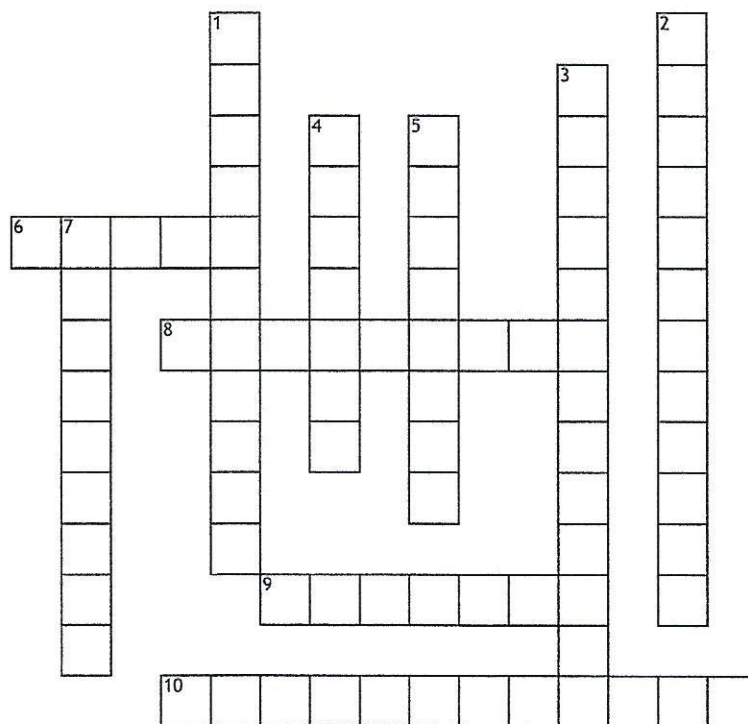

William Henry Johnson
Harriet Tubman

Lydia & Abigail Mott
Solomon Northup

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Underground Railroad - Let's Take A Look

Across

6. Some Freedom Seekers used the Erie _____ to find freedom
8. The _____ Committee met at The Myers Residence
9. A person who chose to escape enslavement was seeking _____
10. A person who worked for the legal end of enslavement in the US

Down

1. The Underground Railroad was a _____ movement
2. The Stephen and Harriet Myers Residence is was the _____ for UGRR work in the Capital Region
3. This famous female abolitionist lived in Auburn, NY after the Civil War
4. Equal opportunity and treatment of all people
5. A person who holds other people in bondage
7. Pieces of plates and bottles dug up by archeologists are called _____

Word Bank

Abolitionist
Vigilance
Artifacts

Headquarters
Justice
Harriet Tubman

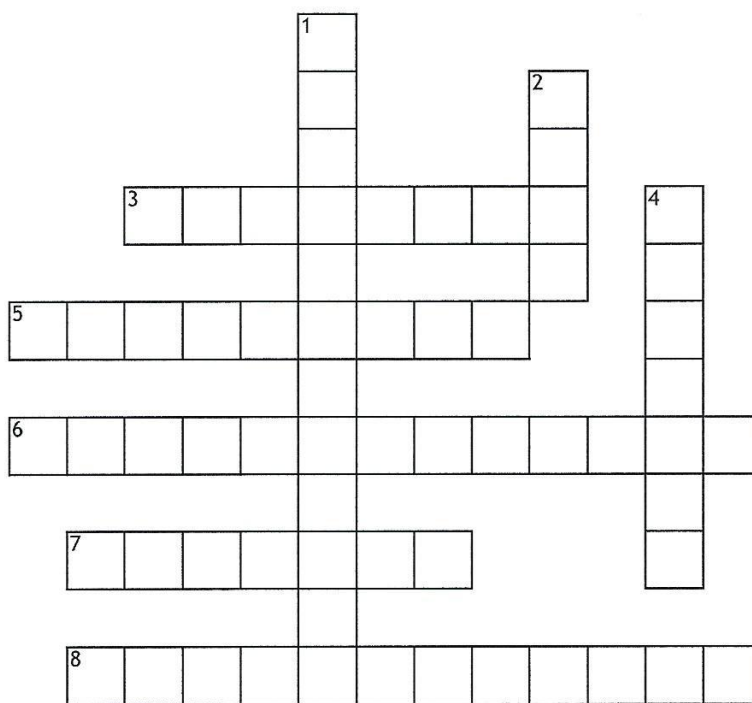

Civil Rights
Enslaver

Canal
Freedom

Name: _____

Date: _____

More from the Underground Railroad

Across

3. A person who holds other people in bondage
5. The legal end of enslavement in the United States
6. A person who chose to escape conditions of enslavement in search of freedom
7. Equal opportunity and treatment of all people
8. A person who was paid for locating and returning people who had escaped their conditions of enslavement. Also known as slave catchers and man stealer.

Word Bank

abolition
enslaver

freedom seeker
UGRR

Down

1. A person who worked for the legal end of enslavement
2. The movement that was a network of abolitionists who assisted freedom seekers in their search for freedom - abbreviated
4. An economic system that allows one group of people to enslave another group of people for personal profit

abolitionist
justice

bounty hunter slavery

Name: _____

Date: _____

Who's Who in the Underground Railroad Movement

- | | |
|--|--------------------------|
| 1. The most famous female UGRR activist | A. Stephen Myers |
| 2. The most important leader of the UGRR in Albany and the Capital Region | B. Solomon Northup |
| 3. This UGRR activist was born a free person in Alexandria, Virginia and came to Albany, NY to work with Stephen Myers | C. Charles Nalle |
| 4. This UGRR abolitionist was brought out of enslavement by his father and was central to UGRR activities in Troy, NY | D. Lydia & Abigail Mott |
| 5. This UGRR activist helped publish the Tosin of Liberty newspaper in Albany, NY | E. William Henry Johnson |
| 6. This UGRR activist took up arms in the Bleeding Kansas conflict | F. Abel Brown |
| 7. Two Quaker sisters who worked in the UGRR movement in Albany, NY | G. Henry Highland Garnet |
| 8. A free man who lived in saratoga County and was kidnapped into enslavement | H. John Brown |
| 9. The Freedom Seeker who was apprehended under the 1850 Federal Fugitive Slave Law in Troy, NY | I. Harriet Tubman |

Name: _____

Date: _____

Who's Who in the Underground Railroad Movement

G Z W P Q P N Q N S M N F R O C E P V X N S K I
R W H H D R I J X V H F P K N S T D F M H Z U S
D L E V X S J S W B M T F Y P F E Q W X C V J L
E G N I T K D X U O K L M W G A K X G U L M C F
N L R H D H T C V O B U C H C C R Z S Y D N G I
W I Y E N O S N H O J Y R N E H M A I L L I W B
O L H O N T G P W N X U Y U C C M L M T I E P C
R D I Q H C V V G K C S S J O H A C T P J V B W
B A G J K U K E I P M O Q B M A R O U N S R C L
N E H D K P Q Q T K V B V Z Y R M A G A T E Z K
H Y L N L Q B K R F O Q A F B L I D O M E Z N H
O K A H O Z P G F F N C A B I E Q K Z B P H P B
J Q N D T J P X N V E A H A W S Z I O U H O L Z
J C D E B E O N Q I O L G X K N V C Z T E V A E
R R G X P F I H U A V I Y V U A G S A T N I F K
R L A S I S M C U O B P T B A L R X A E M L C H
R U R S F L K X M A H D S B G L H D L I Y Y B I
Z J N B M V F Z A X L R E Q T E O L L R E P I U
A N E Z G Q F I I K B L C K H D E L G R R K O W
P S T C R C D X W N B V G L F Y K J K A S J C A
M J L F A Y Q J Q R C I E L H K H C L H Z P S S
L K U W L Z V V O Q M E Z Y Q S O Y S W A R P J
R A A P Z K M W S K F D F X J Y I M C W A K C J
S F V H I G N R U M V N H Z G C D W S V J I X D

Abel Brown Charles Nalle Harriet Tubman Henry Highland Garnet John Brown
Lydia & Abigail Mott Stephen Myers William Henry Johnson

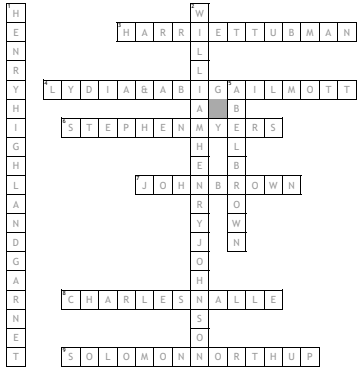

Word Search Clues

- Two Quaker sisters who worked in the UGRR movement in Albany, NY
- The Freedom Seeker who was apprehended under the 1850 Federal Fugitive Slave Law in Troy, NY
- A free man who lived in Saratoga County and was kidnapped into enslavement
- This UGRR abolitionist was brought out of enslavement by his father and was central to UGRR activities in Troy, NY
- The most important leader of the UGRR in Albany and the Capital Region
- This UGRR activist helped publish the Tocsin of Liberty newspaper in Albany, NY
- This UGRR activist took up arms in the Bleeding Kansas conflict
- This UGRR activist was born a free person in Alexandria, Virginia and came to Albany, NY to work with Stephen Myers
- The most famous female UGRR activist

Answers

Page 1

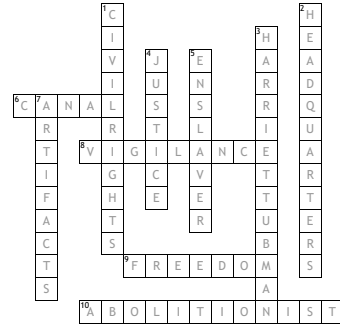

Who's Who in the Underground Railroad Movement

- Across
- The most famous female UGRR activist
 - Two Quaker sisters who worked in the UGRR movement in Albany, NY
 - The most important leader of the UGRR in Albany and the Capital Region
 - This UGRR activist took up arms in the Bleeding Kansas conflict
 - The Freedom Seeker who was apprehended under the 1850 Federal Fugitive Slave Law in Troy, NY
 - A free man who lived in Saratoga County and was kidnapped into enslavement
- Down
- This UGRR abolitionist was brought out of enslavement by his father and was central to UGRR activities in Troy, NY
 - This UGRR activist was born a free person in Alexandria, Virginia and came to Albany, NY to work with Stephen Myers
 - This UGRR activist helped publish the Tocsin of Liberty newspaper in Albany, NY
- Word Bank
- | | | | |
|-----------------------|-----------------------|---------------|-----------------|
| William Henry Johnson | Lydia & Abigail Mott | Charles Nalle | Solomon Northup |
| Harriet Tubman | Henry Highland Garnet | John Brown | Abel Brown |
| Stephen Myers | | | |

Page 2

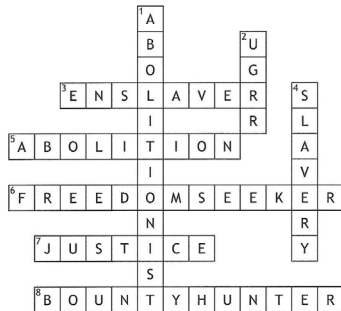

The Underground Railroad - Let's Take A Look

- Across
- Some Freedom Seekers used the Erie _____ to 1. The Underground Railroad was a _____ movement
 - The _____ Committee met at The _____
 - The Stephen and Harriet Myers Residence is was the _____ for UGRR work in the Capital Region
 - A person who chose to escape enslavement was seeking _____
 - Equal opportunity and treatment of all people
 - A person who holds other people in bondage
 - Pieces of plates and bottles dug up by archeologists are called _____
- Down
- This UGRR abolitionist was brought out of enslavement by his father and was central to UGRR activities in Troy, NY
 - This UGRR activist was born a free person in Alexandria, Virginia and came to Albany, NY to work with Stephen Myers
 - This UGRR activist helped publish the Tocsin of Liberty newspaper in Albany, NY
- Word Bank
- | | | | |
|----------------|--------------|-----------|--------------|
| Enslaver | Vigilance | Artifacts | Civil Rights |
| Freedom | Justice | Canal | Headquarters |
| Harriet Tubman | Abolitionist | | |

Page 3

More from the Underground Railroad

- Across
- A person who holds other people in bondage
 - The legal end of enslavement in the United States
 - A person who chose to escape conditions of enslavement in search of freedom
 - Equal opportunity and treatment of all people
 - A person who was paid for locating and returning people who had escaped their conditions of enslavement. Also known as slave catchers and man stealer.
- Down
- A person who worked for the legal end of enslavement
 - The movement that was a network of abolitionists who assisted freedom seekers in their search for freedom - abbreviated
 - An economic system that allows one group of people to enslave another group of people for personal profit
- Word Bank
- | | | | |
|-----------|----------------|--------------|---------------|
| enslaver | freedom seeker | slavery | justice |
| abolition | UGRR | abolitionist | bounty hunter |

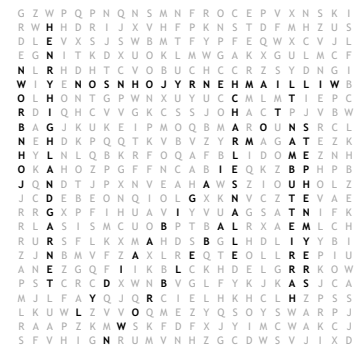

Page 4

Who's Who in the Underground Railroad Movement

- The most famous female UGRR activist
 - The most important leader of the UGRR in Albany and the Capital Region A
 - This UGRR activist was born a free person in Alexandria, Virginia and came to Albany, NY to work with Stephen Myers E
 - This UGRR abolitionist was brought out of enslavement by his father and was central to UGRR activities in Troy, NY G
 - This UGRR activist helped publish the Tocsin of Liberty newspaper in Albany, NY F
 - This UGRR activist took up arms in the Bleeding Kansas conflict H
 - Two Quaker sisters who worked in the UGRR movement in Albany, NY D
 - A free man who lived in saratoga County and was kidnapped into enslavement B
 - The Freedom Seeker who was apprehended under the 1850 Federal Fugitive Slave Law in Troy, NYC
- Word Bank
- | | |
|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| Stephen Myers | Solomon Northup |
| Charles Nalle | Lydia & Abigail Mott |
| William Henry Johnson | Harriet Tubman |
| Abel Brown | Henry Highland Garnet |
| John Brown | |

Page 5

Who's Who in the Underground Railroad Movement

- Word Bank
- | | | | | |
|----------------------|---------------|-----------------------|-----------------------|------------|
| Abel Brown | Charles Nalle | Harriet Tubman | Henry Highland Garnet | John Brown |
| Lydia & Abigail Mott | Stephen Myers | William Henry Johnson | | |