

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD EDUCATION CENTER

Learn the Past, Be the Present, Create the Future ®

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD SCAVENGER HUNT #1

Using the Underground Railroad Education Center (UREC) website at www.undergroundrailroadhistory.org challenge yourself to find all the correct answers to the questions below. Submit your finished document via postal mail to Underground Railroad Education Center, 194 Livingston Avenue, Albany, NY 12210 or scan and email to urhpcr@localnet.com.

If all of your answers are correct you will receive a prize. In order to receive your prize you will need to include your complete contact information at the end of the scavenger hunt document so that your prize can reach you and we can contact you if we have any questions.

1) Who is the famous female Underground Railroad activist pictured on the home page of the UREC website?

2) At what historic Residence can you learn about the civil rights work or Black abolitionists?

3) Jonathan Jones escaped enslavement in Virginia and settled in Elmira, NY. What is one thing he did while in Elmira that makes him someone to remember?

4) What is one thing Underground Railroad Education Center hopes to do?

5a) Name one organization with which UREC is affiliated?

5b) What does it mean for UREC to affiliate with another organization?

6) Who engaged in civil disobedience?

7) What was the Underground Railroad?

8) What building in Albany, NY was the headquarters for Underground Railroad activity in the mid-1850s?

9) In the mid-1850's who lived at the Albany, NY headquarters of the Underground Railroad?

10) What was the first integrated civil rights movement in the United States?

11) Who was James W. C. Pennington?

12) Who was the man who was born enslaved in NYS, was given his freedom, and rose to become the leading UGRR activist in the Capital Region?

When you submit your scavenger hunt via postal mail to email, please make sure the following information is provided:

Your name _____

The name of a parent or guardian _____

Postal address - Number and Street _____

- City, State, Zip code _____

Phone number _____

Email _____